Mayor Healy to Cut Ribbon on DeCarlos Custom Clothier Custom Tailor with Old World Style Opens Doors in Downtown Jersey City

JERSEY CITY – Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy, members of the Municipal Council, and other city officials will hold a ribbon cutting ceremony at 11:30 a.m. on Wednesday, April 15, 2009 at DeCarlos Custom Clothier, at 411 Monmouth Street.

“As our city continues to grow and flourish, the variety of shops and services opening their doors mirrors the diversity of the people who live here,” said Mayor Healy. “We are pleased to welcome DeCarlos Clothier to our city and wish them success in their endeavors.”

DeCarlos Custom Clothier opened its doors on March 5, 2009, specializing in affordable custom suits and shirts, and alterations for women and men. Haberdashery items, boutique pieces, vintage and fashion garments are all welcomed.

The owner, DeCarlos Morse, credits his southern roots with influencing his sense of style. Morse, who describes his shop as providing “quiet confidence with old world tailoring,” worked a number of years at the luxury clothing retailer, Alfred Dunhill of London, gaining tremendous respect in the industry. In 2005, he took a leap of faith and launched a private tailoring business.
